GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN TODAY'S VOTING IN THIS CITY

CITY RACES SEEM TO ECLIPSE ALL OTHERS AT LOCAL POLLS—VOTING IS VERY SLOW BECAUSE OF THREE BALLOTS.

Probably more interest is shown in Tuesday's election in Maysville than in any previous election for at least four years. The polls are crowded and the election officers have been kept very busy all day long.

Because of there being three ballots the voters are very slow in the booths and many are kept waiting in line in front of the polling places. It is thought that there will be much confusion in the city and the school board ballot and indications are that there is much "scratching" being done at all of the polls.

Greatest interest seems to be centered in the city fights at the Maysville polling places. The councilman race seems to eclipse everything else in point of interest.

There was no disorder reported in the city and reports from the county are to the effect that everything is moving along smoothly with no indication of any trouble whatsoever in any of the races. It is expected that because of the indicated "scratching" and the complication in the city races that much time will be consumed in counting the ballots this afternoon and the final reports are not expected until late in the evening.

BEAWE! INDIANS ARE ON THE TRAIL TO MAYSVILLE.

"Before the White Man Came," a spectacular Indian romance of the days before civilization is the special attraction at the Pastime Wednesday. The cast is made up entirely of full-blood Indians. Not a white man or woman in the entire cast. It is the screen's most unique attraction, taken with the cooperation of the U. S. Government and is historically correct in every detail. Every school student is especially invited to see this picture, as it is very educational a swell as entertaining.

GROWERS PASS RESOLUTION THANKING THOSE HELPING

GROWERS OF TOBACCO AT MASS MEETING MONDAY PASS RESOLUTIONS THANKING THOSE WHO HELPED IN CAMPAIGN.

At the mass meeting of the tobacco growers held at the court house on Monday the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved: That we, the members of the Mason County Branch of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association in meeting assembled, desiring to express our appreciation of the effective assistance rendered our cause by those not directly connected with the farming industry, do hereby tender a vote of thanks to those newspapers, banks and business men of the county of Mason who have given so generously of their time and energy for the common good, in the pledging of tobacco to this association.

Resolved, further that the secretary is instructed to publish a copy of this resolution in the newspapers of the county.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

SOCIAL WORKERS' CONFERENCE

The program of the conference of social workers recently held in Lexington was interesting throughout, and the meeting a successful one. The address of Mr. Owen Lovejoy, of New York, was of particular importance because of his long experience as a social worker and his reputation as an authority upon all the subjects which were discussed.

The vital part of Mr. Lovejoy's address was concerned with education. He laid down the thesis that education is fundamental because the child is fundamental. There is no escape from that logic. The child, at least in all modern Christian nations, has been "set in the midst," and its interests have become central. Society is, in fact, organized about the child and every true civilization may be tested by its attitude toward child-life.

The progress of the race depends almost solely upon the proper culture of the children of today. They are the future. To shape them to finer mold, to save them from ignorance and prejudice, to elevate them to a higher moral plane, to fix in their minds nobler ideals than have prevailed, and to equip them better for the conquest of the world than any other generation has been equipped, is the only way in which the race can take a single step forward.

Mr. Lovejoy emphasized the truth that our present system of education fails in two directions: it is neither universal nor adequate. There are nearly six million illiterates above the age of ten. There are eight million rural children, children living in the country proper or in small towns, only five per cent of whom pass through the high school, while the percentage in the cities is twenty-five per cent. We are spending forty dollars upon the education of the city child and but twenty-four dollars on his country cousin. The former is in school 180 days each year, while the latter has but 137 days of schooling out of the 365 days of the year.

Moreover, education is more or less superficial in both cases. Too many leave school, even after passing through the entire grade and high school course, with but a smattering of knowledge, knowing a little about many things but possessing a bare minimum of sound and accurate information about some things. Above all, there is the neglect of fundamentals in favor of many "fads." English is scarcely taught at all. Grammar and rhetoric are slighted along the entire course of study, and more serious still is the one great desideratum is apparently ignored—the power to think clearly and accurately.

The time is coming when we shall wake up to a realization of these things and insist upon a reorganization of our school system and a new emphasis upon the matters which are most vital.—Lexington Leader.

SACRED REDS

Frederick A. Parmenter and Alessandro Bernadelli were shot dead at South Braintree, Mass., April 25, 1920, while defending a shoe factory payroll in their charge. It was broad daylight. The robbers escaped in an automobile. Two of them, Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, unnaturalized Italians, were tried for murder in the first degree in the summer of 1921. The care shown in selecting a jury may be judged from the fact that out of a venire of 500 only seven jurors were accepted. The trial was fair. Representatives of the Italian government sat through it, as did representatives of Italian newspapers of Boston and New York and of certain radical societies, deeply concerned in the defendants, who are extreme radicals.

The defendants had alert and acute lawyers. The judge's charge was eminently impartial. The indignation manifested and manifested against it in Europe seems to arise in part from a forged quotation, but is suspected to have been fomented originally by two Communist comrades of the defendants. One comrade, himself suspected of complicity in the murders, managed to escape to Europe. The other was deported by the government. The jury found a verdict of murder in the first degree. The judge granted the defendants until November 1 to file exceptions. On July 20 a motion for a new trial was filed. At Cambridge, on October 22, a date for a hearing on the motion was set by Judge Thayer, who presided at the trial, the counsel having been unable to agree upon a day. A fat fund is being raised by the domestic Reds.—New York Times.

WHY THE BAMBINO COMES IN

If Babe Ruth is coming back from the warpath to the reservation it is not entirely, we suspect, because he has been overawed by High Commissioner Landis. A greater force than the Judge has been at work on the Bambino. This is the combination, formed about this time every year, of Jack Frost and football.

It is easy to believe that Ruth and his associate barnstormers ran into bad business. Baseball went into winter quarters with the last putout of the world series. Of course the Stove League is always in session. Its hardy members convene even when there is three feet of snow outside the store window and explain why Pianu did not bat well and why Burns is not as great a fielder as Delehanty used to be.

But the Stove League is an intelligent group. It does not pay large admission fees to see barnstormers even when they include such famed individuals as Ruth and Meusel. The people who keep the turnstiles hot have switched their attention to football. The box scores are put away in camphor until the training season of the big league baseball players starts in the South.

The pigskin oval is on the throne and the horsehide globe is in exile for the winter. It is strange that a psychologist so eminent as the Bambino did not discover this before he dug up the hatchet and defied the Judge.—New York Herald.

Fort Wayne Sentinel—And don't forget this: High taxes are here to stay until this country has recovered from the blight of Wilsonism.

Uncle Ted Sees Hope For Real Agreement at Conference in November.

"Yes, and I'll just bet that the mail man has a letter for us," said Ruth.

"Gee!" said Jack, "it would be nice, wouldn't it to have a nice long letter from Uncle Ted to read by the fire. I've been cold ever since we went down to the river."

It was Saturday and Jack had been up to his old tricks of doing the one thing that his mother refused to let him do—that was going down to the river after the weather turned cold.

"You'll get it, all right," said Ruth, "if mother finds out. No wonder you're cold getting your feet all wet in that icy water."

"I know I shouldn't have done it," replied Jack. "But I won't do it any more and if you'll be good and not tell mother this once, we will sit in front of the fire while I dry my shoes and stockings and we can play games."

"We can do better than that for here comes the mailman and I'll bet he has a letter," was Ruth's exclamation as she rushed down the steps to meet Uncle Sam's messenger.

"Here it is, here it is," she called, as she ran up the steps with a long envelope. "Now let's read it quick."

So they sat in front of the big open fire and Jack began the letter:

"Dearest Kiddies: Uncle Ted hopes that you are both well and happy and that you are very good children. You must be good to your mother for you know Uncle Ted always finds out sooner or later. I am having a wonderful visit in Washington and I only wish you could be with me. Even now the city shows marked signs of the big even to start on November 11, when the representatives of the big countries meet here to the conference which we hope will result in cutting down armaments and lessening the chances of war for the future. With the German, Austrian and Hungarian treaties out of the way and with active work in progress toward the proclamation, and appointment of ambassadors, and resuming of diplomatic relations, the thoughts of the State Department can be turned to the work of the conference with nothing else to worry them.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York.—Who remembers the days when they called them "rainy daisies" if skirts escaped the floor by full three inches? Twenty-five years ago, some time even before the advent of those daring "daisies" the "Short Skirt Club" was formed in New York, with hygiene as the motto. The other day, the club, whose cause for existence has been so drastically taken away from it, gave a luncheon for the sake of old memories and in honor of Miss Annie Matthews, Democratic candidate for registrar. Maybe there is some cause and effect between the change in styles and change in political status which made it especially fitting.

In these days of so many military and navy heroes in the city, there is excuse for the hesitancy which even native New Yorkers are feeling in addressing the resplendent persons who stalk about the lobbies of the larger hotels. "I haven't asked directions or given orders about having some one paged for two weeks," explained one

Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt have been asked by the Council to address the big central meeting in Philadelphia that night, and equally interesting plans have been made for other parts of the country. Mrs. Philip North Moore, the president of the Council, and Mrs. David Allen Campbell, Chairman of Community Singing, express themselves as splendidly satisfied with the response from all parts of the nation to the appeal for the celebration of that day with an appropriate program of song. Three meetings will be held in Philadelphia that night, and at Another comedy of youth has come to town to cheer us in the gray and foggy month of November, and season of what seems at times to a steady theater-gore to be a shade too much of "realism" of the dreary sort. It is "Golden Days," with Helen Hayes in the leading role, and if that combination of title and star alone fail to spell blitheness, one has indeed a desolate soul. As a matter of fact, in addition to the attractions, it is well-written and well-acted throughout.

The store detectives are back on the job in earnest after a comparatively easy summer. Fashions probably make as much difference to the difficulties of their task as they do to their customers. "It was simple enough last season," one of them explains. "Clothes were undraped and without much space parking place for stolen goods. The new sleeves are going to be our trouble now. Next to a knitting bag and a muff, nothing makes life happier for a shoplifter than full and trailing sleeves. Oh, yes, we have to watch the fashions as closely as a mannequin. And there are hard days for us ahead this winter."

After having been divorced for seven years, Mrs. Marguerite Martin McElhinney and Gladstone McElhinney, were remarried the other day. It seems as though this time there had been plenty of time for contemplation before taking any rash step.

A MERCILESS JUDGE ON WHO SHOWS NO FAVOR.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Maysville resident has withstood this sternest of all tests. Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 East Second street, Maysville, says: "I have been greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills and I have reason to recommend them. At times my back has become lame and ached just over my kidneys. My kidneys were irregular in action and I was dizzy. When ever I have used Doan's Kidney Pills I always get relief from these complaints. I certainly think them a good reliable remedy. I always get Doan's at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

The above statement was given November 16, 1916, and on November 22, 1920, Mrs. Holliday said: "I am glad to say my kidneys have given me no trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills four years ago. My general health has been good. I gladly renew the statement I gave recommending Doan's at the time."

An estrangement had taken place between Atkins and his wife, and she had moved into a house owned by the minister. It is alleged that Atkins is wealthy he forced her to do all the work. In addition to this she claims her husband was jealous of her and locked her in her room on many occasions. She also states that he made her use the cellar floor for a refrigerator. When placed on it he became mouldy he told her it improved the ham, made her scrape off the mould, cook the ham and eat it.

LOUISVILLE CANDIDATE ARRESTED IN A WAR CLUB ROW

Democratic Candidate for Mayor of Louisville and Sheriff of Jefferson County Arrested By Police.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—W. Overton Harris, Democratic nominee for mayor of Louisville, started election day early as a prisoner with a ride from a leading hotel to police headquarters in a patrol wagon. With Mr. Harris on the ride was Dr. H. E. Mechling, Democratic nominee for sheriff of Jefferson county, and nine other men. Mr. Harris was slated at police headquarters on charges of disorderly conduct, and with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. Mr. Mechling was charged with disorderly conduct.

Late last night, as a sequel to the seizure of several hundred hickory "war clubs," several policemen under Captain Ed Larkin went to the hotel to arrest men against whom they said they had "information" that the men had been brought to the city to intimidate voters today. William Bosler, manager of the hotel, remonstrated with the officers, it is said, and was placed under arrest. Joseph Bosler and W. Ray Bosler, employees at the hotel, also were arrested.

At police headquarters James Dixon a reporter, who had been sent there to investigate, was arrested. He was charged with disorderly conduct, resisting an officer and conspiring to defraud in election. All were released under bond.

Paul Burlingame, Republican, the chairman of the Board of Safety, in a statement last night said that he had had information that the Democratic party was importing men to be used Tuesday in intimidating voters in the election.

TAX REVISION BILL IS PASSED.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Lower federal taxes were a step nearer reality today as the result of passage of the tax revision bill by the Senate.

While most of the country slept, the Senate plodded away on the measure and passed it at 1:45 a.m. today.

The vote was 33 to 14, with 3 Republicans, Moses, Lafollette and Norris voting against it.

The measure now goes to conference with the House.

ADMISSION 10 AND 15 CENTS.

TOMORROW — A cast of full-blooded Indians in the screen's most unique attraction "BEFORE THE WHITE MAN CAME." Positively a full-blooded Indian cast. Not a white man or woman in the entire production. The cast of characters are as follows: Barney Old Coyote, Ben Spotted Horse, Scratches His Face, Bird Tail, White Man Runs 'Em, Bear Claw, Robert Yellow Tail, Old Badger, Plain Feather, Little Fire. Indian life before civilization is pictured in this sensational feature. A picture that is educational as well as entertaining.

PROBE IS MADE INTO DEATH OF NEWPORT GIRL

Fayette County Grand Jury Begins Investigation of Miss Louise Rainey's Death at Hotel.

A probe into the circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Dorothy Rainey, 27, of Newport, Ky., who was killed when she fell to the street from the fifth floor of the Lafayette Hotel, at Lexington, shortly after midnight October 25, was begun by the Fayette county grand jury yesterday.

A number of witnesses appeared at the court house Monday in response to summonses from the grand jury and were questioned. No statement could be obtained from the foreman or any members of the grand jury concerning the investigation. The witnesses summoned, however, were those who had been with Miss Rainey on the night she fell to her death or who had been with her the previous afternoon.

The day following Miss Rainey's death a coroner's jury returned a verdict declaring that the young woman had come to her death "from injuries sustained by accidentally falling from window in the Lafayette Hotel."

Shortly after Miss Rainey was picked up on the sidewalk and rushed to the hospital Carl Wiedemann, Clinton, son of George Wiedemann, president of the Wiedemann Brewing Company, who was in the young woman's room at the hotel at the time, told police she had jumped from the window, having become despondent.

The next day before the coroner's jury he declared that she had been sitting in the window and accidentally fell out.

Miss Rainey was the daughter of Dr. Louise Rainey of Newport, and was regarded as one of the most beautiful girls in the state. Wiedemann declared that he had stopped at the young woman's room to tell her good night when she took the plunge that resulted in her death.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Siefert Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pottsville, Pa.—"I suffered with female trouble for four or five years and was very irritable. I was not fit to do my work at times and took medicine from a doctor and got no benefit. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and took it and got all right. I gained twenty pounds or more and am now able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. SALIE SIEFERT, 313 W. Fourth Street, Pottsville, Pa.

The everyday life of many housewives is a continual struggle with weakness and pain. There is nothing more wearing than the ceaseless round of household duties and they become doubly hard when some female trouble makes every bone and muscle ache and nerves all on edge.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Siefert did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
